

WOODWARD AVENUE, NORTH OF JEFFERSON AVENUE, DETROIT, MICH.

2-50
WOODWARD AVENUE,
NORTH OF JEFFERSON AVENUE,
DETROIT, MICH.

Woodward Avenue enjoys the unusual distinction of being both Detroit's leading business and residence street. It is named in honor of Judge Woodward, one of Detroit's foremost citizens in the pioneer days, and stretches approximately north and south. At the foot are the ferry docks where boats leave regularly for Windsor, Ont., Belle Isle and Bois Blanc Islands.
